Reducing Poverty through Skills Training

Submitted by Ibork on November 13, 2015

Karamogo Sangara, the only electrician in his village, trains four apprentices in how to repair a television. For those youth without the privilege of education, learning different skilled trades is one way to reduce poverty and increase opportunity. Peace Corps volunteers work in Feed the Future countries to support economic development and agriculture activities, helping communities reduce poverty and improve their food security. Photo by Lisa Bacon, Peace Corps Mali
